

Launching of Smart-form Applications for FCY/RMB Cross-border Funds Transfer

We are pleased to advise that HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited will launch smart-form applications (the "Smart-form Applications") on 13 June 16 and start to use the same on (and including) the same day for the following services:

- FCY domestic funds transfer;
- FCY cross-border funds transfer;
- RMB cross-border funds transfer; and
- RMB domestic funds transfer following FCY conversion.

The Smart-form Applications will help avoid manual error and improve the efficiency of instructions preparation and payment process, in the sense that, for example, they will pre-verify the payment information inserted by clients and generate certain payment instructions (such as payment amount in words) automatically. Clients may also save any completed Smart-form Application as a template for future use.
