

Renminbi Cash Deposit and Withdrawal Service Arrangement of HSBC Bank (China) Company Limited

Dear Customers,

In recent years, it has been a continuous industry trend of customer behaviors change to online channels. This change allows us to better utilize our resources and drive operational excellence through only provide non-cash services in parts of the HSBC (China)'s branches. Some of our branches has terminated the cash service. You can continuously enjoy cash service at other cash service branches if you need to deposit or withdraw Renminbi cash.

Cash/ Non- cash service branch detail list is posted on our official site. You may click the link address below and check the branches. Such list is for corporate banking service branches only, but not including personal banking service branches. We remark Non-cash Service for each non cash service branch for easy reference.
