

Tariff of Accounts and Services

For Corporate Customers

This tariff (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time) applies to services provided by the Mainland China branches of the Bank to their corporate customers. The term "corporate customers" shall, when used in this tariff, refer to corporations, enterprises, institutions and other non-personal customers, as well as sole proprietors.

This tariff comes into effect from 1 April 2025. The charges, accounts and services in this tariff may be adjusted from time to time at the Bank's discretion or according to laws and regulations and/or directives as given by the local authorities, and the Bank shall not be liable for not notifying the customers of such adjustments caused by any change in regulatory requirements.

The charges shown in this tariff do not include charges collected by other institutions (including, without limitation, any other branches of the Bank or any other HSBC Group members, whether situated within or outside China) or duties, levies, charges or taxes imposed by the Government. Where applicable, these charges, duties, levies or taxes should be paid at the rate laid down by such other institutions or the relevant authorities.

This tariff (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time) is for the customers' information only, and the Bank shall not be liable for its completeness and consistency with regulatory requirements. Nothing in this tariff shall restrict the Bank's rights under any other terms and conditions applicable to the relevant accounts.

Unless otherwise stipulated, the charges shown in this tariff will be calculated and collected in Chinese Yuan. If payments are made in a different currency from the prescribed currency, the equivalent in such other currency will be calculated at an exchange rate quoted by the Bank at the time of payment.

This tariff may be amended or supplemented from time to time, but the printing version of the tariff may not be updated instantly. If any provision in the printing version conflicts with that in the electronic version as published on the Bank's official website, the electronic version shall prevail. Except for any service that is subject to government-guided or government-set price, the Bank may separately reach agreement with any individual customer regarding the relevant rate for any standard bank service that is subject to market-adjusted price, and the Bank may also provide customers with special or customized services, and the parties may reach agreement regarding the applicable rates related to such service that is subject to market-adjusted price. If the Bank and a customer reaches any special agreement regarding any service and/or the applicable rates, such special agreement shall prevail. In case of any discrepancy between the English version and the Chinese version of this tariff, the Chinese version shall prevail.
