

NOTICE OF AMENDMENTS TO CHINA COUNTRY CONDITIONS

Dear Customers,

In order to comply with regulatory requirements, please be advised that the terms and conditions in the China Country Conditions (as part of the Relationship Documents you have entered into with us) will be amended and updated as follows, with effect from 01March2023 (inclusive).

The following clause shall be deleted in its entirety and be replaced by the clause set opposite it:

Clause(s) to be deleted	New clause(s) to be inserted
3.2 (d) If the Customer's business licence, or the identification document of its legal representative or person-in-charge is not renewed within 5 business days from the expiry of its validity period, and no reasonable grounds are given to the Bank, the Bank shall have the right to take Account Trading Restriction Measures.	3.2 (d) If the Customer's business licence, enterprise code certification or the identification document of its legal representative, person-in-charge, partner, sole trader or any authorised signatory is not renewed before the expiry of its validity period, and no reasonable grounds are given to the Bank, the Bank shall have the right to take Account Trading Restriction Measures.

Save as amended as above, all terms and conditions of the China Country Conditions remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

If you have any queries about the amendments, please contact gps.imp.documentation@hsbc.com.cn.
